Free Dress Week

OCT
26-30

Our first free dress week of the season is October 26-30!

Participation in free dress week is completely optional, but does have some guidelines should your dancer to choose to participate. You can find those guidelines anytime on our website!

Reminder: outfits should be dancewear, not Halloween costumes.

Classes Continue!

Legacy Dance has students from several school districts and schooling schedules. Classes continue as normally scheduled through October and fall break. If you need to be absent, please let us know by submitting your absence on the parent portal! You can find the full season calendar at-a-glance on our website.

Our Performing Companies have had a busy fall sharing the love of dance at various community festivals, parades, senior centers, and nursing homes!
